

HATE HAS FOUND A HOME IN THE NATIONAL RIFLE ASSOCIATION.

U.S. Senators who are tempted to sign on to the extremist agenda of the National Rifle Association should take a cold, hard look at the venom spewed forth by the NRA leadership.

"...the consensus is that no more than five to ten people in a hundred who die by gunfire in Los Angeles are any loss to society...It would seem a valid social service to keep them well-supplied with ammunition."

—Jeff Cooper, NRA Board of Directors, 4/91

"The preponderance of South Africa is a different breed of man...They still put bones in their noses, they still walk around naked, they wipe their butts with their hands...You give 'em toothpaste, they (expletive deleted) eat it."

—Ted Nugent, 7/90, NRA Board of Directors, 1995 to present.

"One amendment today said we could not sell guns to anybody under drug treatment. So, does that mean if you go into a black community, you cannot sell a gun to any black person...?"—Rep. Barbara Cubin (R-WY), NRA Board of Directors, 4/03

"In fact, studies of homicide victims—especially the increasing number of younger ones—suggest they are frequently criminals themselves and/or drug addicts or users. It is quite possible that their deaths, in terms of economic consequences to society, are net gains." —Paul Blackman, NRA Research Coordinator, 3/94

(On Gun Safety Advocates) "What fakes, frauds and liars!...(A) shadowy network of extremist social guerillas... Together they form a sort of Taliban, an intolerant coalition of fanatics that shelter the anti-freedom alliance so it can thrive and grow."— Wayne LaPierre, NRA CEO and Executive Vice President, 5/02

President Bush, Vice President Cheney, Majority Leader Frist and the U.S. Senate: Whose side are you on? Will you support an organization that greets with approving silence these ugly, vicious statements from its own leaders and blacklists hundreds of distinguished Americans from Oprah Winfrey to Bruce Springsteen to Walter Cronkite?

The NRA is now bullying the U.S. Senate to give sweeping legal immunity to reckless gun dealers like Bull's Eye Shooter Supply, the gun shop that "lost" the assault rifle used by the DC snipers to kill 12 innocent people. Stand up against the hate-filled rhetoric of the NRA. Stand up for the victims of gun violence—80 Americans killed every day. Please go to our website and help us stop this dangerous bill.
